Naples, September 11, N. S.

ON the 28th past the King's Troops, under the Command of M. de Castropignano, arrived at Aquila from the Romagna. On the 30th they were divided in several Parties, and began their March for the different Garrisons of the Kingdom.

Rome, Sept. 15. On Account of the Indisposition of M. Fusarelli, the Pope's Commissary to attend the Passage of the Spanish Troops through the Ecclesiastical State, the Chevalier Baldeschi has been appointed to prepare the Etapes, &c. for them in their Motion from Foligno and Perugia to the Marca. A general Order has been notified by the Secretary of State to the respective Governors and Ministers of the Ecclesiastical State, not to suffer the Exportation of any Sorts of Eatables; which is done for the Sake of supplying the Cities that have suffered the most by the Burthen of Foreign Troops, and on this Account a Purchase of 22,000 Rubbi of Foreign Corn has been made for the Use of this State. Upon a Discovery said to have been made, That Cardinal Gonzaga the Secretary of State was engaged privately in Steps prejudicial to the Queen of Hungary's Interest, the Revenues of two Abbies, which he enjoy'd in the State of Milan, have been seized by Order of the Court of Vienna, and the Cardinal's Brother dismissed from his Employments at Mantua. A Neapolitan Gentleman dwelling in this City, and who has the Queen of Hungary's Protection, had his House strictly search'd, 'tis said, at the Request of Cardinal Acquaviva, which was highly complained of by M. de Thun. On the 10th, being the Empress's Birth-day, Cardinal Borgheſe, as Protector of the Empire, received the usual Compliments on that Occasion.

Leghorn, Sept. 21. On the 19th sailed from this Port for Trieste, two Settees of War of the Great Duke, conducting thither many Cases, &c. containing some Houshold Furniture and the Archives of the House of Lorrain, in order to be transported to Vienna. There was a large Quantity of Salt instead of Balast. The same Day sailed for Villa Franca, his Majesty's Ship the Pembroke, the Hon. Capt. Lee, with two other, to join Admiral Mathews, on their Return from the Adriatick.

Florence, Sept. 23. On the 20th M. de Montemar, attended by M. de Castellar, the Marquis de Villermosa, and some subaltern Officers, passed early in the Morning near the Walls of this City, from Perugia and Arezzo to Pisa and Lerici, on his Journey to Spain, in Obedience to the Commands he had lately received from that Court. Many of the Florentine Noblemen went to compliment him at a private Gentleman's Country-house, where he lodged the Night before; but as he had determined to be incognito, Prince Ottajano de Medicis and the Spanish Agent only were admitted. He travels with his own Chaises, Horses, &c. and stops at the common Inns upon the Road, to avoid giving Trouble to any body, and goes on very slowly, about Ten Miles per Day. On the 22d he stopt at Empoli, about three Posts from Florence, at a Florentine Gentleman's Country-house there, 'tis thought to gain Time in Expectation of a Courier from Spain, with their Catholick Majesties Leave to justify his Conduct in regard to the Expedition of Lombardy. The Spanish Troops, under the Command of M. de Gages, are in full March from their late Station at Foligno and Perugia, in three Columns by different Roads, viz. three Battallions with the Artillery by the Furlo, 34 Battallions by Fabbriano and Tinigaglia, and 2000 Horse by Recanati and Osmio. The Place of their Rendezvous is Fano, from whence it is supposed they are to proceed to the Bolognese. The Desertion amongst those Troops is considerable, numerous Parties arrive daily at Florence, especially on the 20th about 200, besides those that take the Road of Castro and Ronciglione. M. de Traun, the Austrian General, has sent a Colonel to Cardinal Alberoni the Legat of Bologna, to desire that the necessary Preparations may be made for the Reception of the Queen's Troops; which, together with those of the King of Sardinia, under the Command of M. d'Aprement, are design'd, as we hear, to enter that Legation, on the Approach of the Spaniards towards it.

Lisbon, October 1. Last Week Four Officers of the Wager, which went out with Commodore Anson, viz. The Lieutenant of the Ship, a Captain and Two Lieutenants of Marines, and four Sailors, arrived here in a Portuguese Vessel: They say they were cast away upon an uninhabited Island in the South Seas in May was a Twelve-month. After they had lost their Ship, they lengthened their Long-Boat, and threw a Deck over her, in which, and two open Boats, the whole Crew, being 81 in Number, resolved to put to Sea, except the Captain, who chose to stay behind. One of the Boats put back immediately, the others proceeded, passed the Streights of Magellan, and kept along the Coast till they got to Rio Grande, where they were well received by the Portuguese; but, before they got there, several of the People died in the Voyage, others run away there; the rest sail'd again from thence, and went to the Rio de Janeiro; when they got thither, they were told their Companions, which left them at Rio Grande, had been there, and were gone away in his Majesty's Ship commanded by Captain Smith, who sailed for the West-Indies seven or eight Days before they got in. The Officers go home by thi this Packet, and the Sailors are gone on board his Majesty's Ship the Greyhound. The King of Portugal had fixed this Day for returning to the Caldas, but the 27th past his Majesty had a fainting Fit, by which he was deprived of his Senses for above a Quarter of an Hour, but was restored by Bleeding. Last Night it was said that his Majesty was just as he had been before the 27th, only a little weak after the Bleeding; for which Reason the Physicians have advised putting off the Journey for the present.

Brussels, October 13. N. S. Yesterday arrived here Six Battallions of the Austrian Troops out of the Garrison of Luxemburg, making up upwards of 4000 Men. These Troops having passed through this Place before the Governor-General, went on to the Village of Anderlecht, about a League off, in the Road to Mons. The Governor-General went thither in the Afternoon to view them; as did most of the General Officers, Nobility, and Crowds of People. There are also several Battallions out of the Garrison of Mons, and one Battallion of Prie's from Ostend and Nieuport, that are to join them there. The Hanoverians and Hessians, who are coming from Venlo and Ruremonde, are daily expected in this Neighbourhood. Baron Chanclos, Commandant of Luxemburg, and Count Beaufort, Governor of Charleroy, arrived here Yesterday from their respective Governments. My Lord Stair, and the Duke of Arenberg, are daily expected from the Hague.

Paris, October 14. By Letters from the French Army under the Command of the Marshal Maillebois, upon the Frontiers of Bohemia, there is an Account of the great Distress those Troops are in for Want of all Sorts of Provisions, and particularly of the extreme Scarcity of Forrage, which has occasioned a great Mortality amongst their Horses.

Kensington, October 7.

This Day Signior Grossa Testa, sent from the Duke of Modena, had his first private Audience of his Royal Highness the Duke,

And afterwards a private Audience of their Royal Highnesses the Princesses Amelia, Caroline and Louisa.

To which he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Knight, Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, October 8.

The King has been pleased to translate the most Reverend Father in God, Dr. John Hoadley, Archbishop of Dublin in the Kingdom of Ireland, to the Archbishoprick of Ardmagh, in the said Kingdom, vacant by the Death of the most Reverend Father in God, Dr. Hugh Boulter, late Archbishop thereof.

Whitehall, October 9.

By Letters received the 6th Instant from Vice-Admiral Mathews, in the Road of Hieres, dated the 17th of September, there is Advice, That he, the Vice-Admiral, having had Information that some Magazines of Corn had been laid up, by the Genoese, at Arassa, for the Use of the Spaniards, he had dispatched Commodore Martin thither, who arrived in that Road the 1st of September, and immediately sent Officers on Shore to search for the said Magazines; and that they having found Four of Barley there, belonging to the Spaniards, had forthwith destroyed the same, by throwing them into the Sea.

Whitehall, October 1, 1742.

Whereas it has been represented to his Majesty, that on Tuesday the Thirty First Day of August last, about Eleven or Twelve o'Clock at Night, Mr. Isaac Decker, Commander of the Cutter, in the Service of the Customs at Colchester, chased another Cutter off Felixtow, in the County of Suffolk, Thomas Cobby, Master, supposed to be laden with Run Goods, which Cutter made close for the Shore; and that the Officers pursuing her, were met by thirty or forty Smuglers armed, who kept a constant Fire at them, and killed John Mills, one of the Mariners belonging to the Custom-house Cutter. For the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons who committed the said Murder, his Majesty is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person that actually killed the said John Mills) who will discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement for such Discovery, his Majesty is pleased to promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Person or Persons whatsoever, who shall make the said Discovery, payable by the Receiver General of his Majesty's Customs, on the Conviction of one or more of the said Offenders, over and above what he or they are intitled to by Act of Parliament.

Admiralty-Office, Sept. 24, 1742.

Notice is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Goal Delivery, for the Tryal of Offences committed on the High Seas within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held on Tuesday the 9th Day of November next, at Justice-hall in the Old Baily, London, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning. Tho. Corbett.

General Post Office, London, July 3, 1742.

Whereas divers Persons, thro' Ignorance or Carlessness, frequently put Letters into the General Post Offices, and the Receiving Houses both in Town and Country, directed on board of Ships, and to Foreign Parts, without paying at the same Time the Postage, as ought to be done; And whereas Letters and Packets are often put into the said Offices with Money and Rings inclosed, and in Fraud of his Majesty's Revenue, divers Persons presume to send Letters with false and counterfeit Franks;

This is to acquaint the Publick, that no Letters under any of the Circumstances aforesaid have any Right by Law to be forwarded.

Note, That Letters going out of Great Britain (except to France, Holland, and Flanders) have by the ancient Usage of this Office paid the Foreign Postage, and are required by the Act of Parliament so to do, at the Office in Great Britain where the same are first put in.

Note also, That if such Letters to Foreign Parts are put into any of the Country Offices, the Inland Postage of such Letters to London must also be paid on putting the same into such Office

By Command of the Post Master General.
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

General Post-Office, London, Sept. 29, 1742.

POST CHAISES between London and Bath.

This is to acquaint the Publick, that the several Post-masters on the Road between London and Bath, are ready to furnish any Gentlemen, or others, with Post-Chaises, safe, easy, and well secured from the Weather, with a Lamp to give sufficient Light in dark Nights, upon as short Warning as for Post Horses, any Hour either in the Day or Night.
